Outsourcing CashCollection

Outsource cash collection with the help of our friendly, professional team

Provide short-term support to your busy accounts receivable team.

Reduce DSO and restore your usual processes and cash flows without resorting to increasing headcount.

Receive soft support with the AugmentedCash system and business improvement recommendations from our BPO team.

Have you experienced an increase in the amount of unpaid invoices since the start of the COVID-19 crisis? If your finance team are experiencing slow cash flow generation, we can help – we can provide our Outsourced Cash Collection services to help you get back on track.

Outsource your collections process to rapidly reduce days sales outstanding (DSO) and restore your usual processes and cash flows, without increasing headcount or resorting to factoring or other expensive options. Our BPO (Business Process Outsourcing) team is made up of a team of specialists, who are well-trained in cash collection and dispute handling, and they will work alongside you in line with your specific practices, allowing your team to focus on core activities.

The team from Sidertrade will be experts in using our market-leading Augmented Cash platform, which digitizes and streamlines cash collection and makes credit management easy to monitor. By outsourcing all or part of your accounts receivable management to our team, you can expect to see increased collections performance and reduced DSO, while providing temporary support to your in-house team and delegating difficult processes to professionals.

In addition, our team will feed back with regular reporting, business intelligence and suggestions for improvement – as well as day-to-day soft support for your users of the Augmented Cash system.
